CHAPTER _____

An act to amend Section 220 of the Labor Code, relating to employment.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 2410, Machado. Wages: state employees.

Existing law prescribes requirements respecting employer payment of wages, including timely payment thereof, that are applicable to all employers, other than the state, counties, cities, and other municipal corporations. These provisions of existing law also prescribe penalties for violations, make certain violations misdemeanors, and provide for enforcement by the Division of Labor Standards of the Department of Industrial Relations and by district attorneys and city prosecutors, as specified.

This bill would delete specified exemptions for the state as an employer from these provisions.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 220 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

220. (a) Sections 201.5, 201.7, 203.1, 203.5, 204, 204a, 204b, 204c, 204.1, 205, and 205.5 do not apply to the payment of wages of employees directly employed by the State of California. Except as provided in subdivision (b), all other employment is subject to these provisions.

(b) Sections 200 to 211, inclusive, and Sections 215 to 219, inclusive, do not apply to the payment of wages of employees directly employed by any county, incorporated city, or town or other municipal corporation. All other employments are subject to these provisions.
